Hope and encouragement for women in spiritually unequal marriages Today ' s churches are filled with “ Sunday widows ” or “ spiritual singles. ” Marriage is challenging enough, but when a woman becomes a Christian before her husband does, when a once-committed Christian man walks away from his faith, or when a believing woman marries an unbeliever, the loneliness can be unbearable. A woman in any of these positions often feels frustrated, guilty, and anxious. She is torn between two loves: her love for God and her love for her husband. Between Two Loves offers these women a lifeline and source of immediate help and hope during times of discouragement and confusion. It is designed to be a part of a woman's personal devotion time and addresses the common concerns she faces every day. With a light-hearted, upbeat style and with empathy for the spiritual single, author Nancy Kennedy brings the perspective of one who is still praying for her husband's spiritual condition, but who hasn't let that hamper her from serving the Lord and her family with a joy-filled and faith-filled heart.

Bible In the last few years a number of best-selling books have focused on the lives of women of the Bible. Now, Nancy Kennedy takes a fresh approach by reflecting on the significant prayers of women in Scripture. Praying with Women of the Bible features some of the Bible's most notable women, including Deborah, Hannah, and Mary, all of whom prayed for different things, in different ways. By using the examples of these godly women, the book is designed to show different types of prayer, as well as different reasons to pray. The types of prayer include willingness and surrender, praise and worship, thanksgiving and personal supplication, pleading for mercy, intercessions and perseverance, bold requests, and a prayer of faith. Features include:
