The Bartimaeus Trilogy (A Bartimaeus Novel): Stroud ...

The Bartimaeus Trilogy is set in an alternate-universe England that's divided into two kinds of people: magicians, and commoners. The magicians in the story can't actually do magic - all they do is study half their lives and learn how to summon djin, who carry out their orders. Our main character (well, one of them) is Nathaniel, t

The Bartimaeus Trilogy is a "young adult" fantasy series by British author Jonathan Stroud. Book one, The Amulet of Samarkand, was published in September 2003, and book two, The Golem's Eye, was published in September of this year.I have no information on when book three will be published. In this review I plan to focus mainly on the setting, which I think has potential for use in a role ...

Review of Bartimaeus Trilogy (books 1 & 2) - RPGnet RPG ...

2 The Bartimaeus trilogy is set in modern times—was it very different to write in a historical setting? Well, it was important to me that the new book was rather different, because I didn't want to just copy what had gone before. The original trilogy is based in London, which I know well, and that knowledge had helped ground the fantasy nicely.
