He Bear, She Bear uses the infamous Berenstain Bears to talk about the controversial issue of gender roles. This book is clearly ahead of its time (written in 1974). The book explains that a male or female can be whatever they want to be and are not restricted to a particular job just because of their gender. A great book for kids!

Queenie is a Lovable Alpha Bitch rather than a mean one, as shown when she is Innocently Insensitive when she excludes Sister Bear from getting soft ice-cream with her posse, and Too Tall, for all his bullying, has standards, sometimes even forming an Enemy Mine with Brother and Sister Bear. Why is that? In the Berenstain Bear community, with minor exceptions like the Beary Bubby trend, most adults fall into the Reasonable Authority Figure slant, and their kids tend to follow suit. They may ...
